IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: This bill requires the operator of a motor vehicle with a windshield that has been treated or has not been treated with rain repellant to display lighted head lamps whenever weather conditions require the continuous operation of windshield wipers on a vehicle with a windshield that has not been treated with rain repellant. It makes conforming changes.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues: If additional court cases occur, revenue to the State General Fund may increase if infraction judgments and court fees are collected. The maximum judgment for a Class C infraction is $500 which is deposited in the State General Fund. If court actions are filed and a judgment is entered, a court fee of $70 would be assessed. 70% of the court fee would be deposited in the State General Fund if the case is filed in a court of record or 55% if the case is filed in a city or town court.

If a criminal action, infraction or ordinance violation involves a traffic violation, including this proposed offense, a highway work zone fee of either 50 cents or $25.50 is assessed.

Explanation of Local Expenditures:

Explanation of Local Revenues: If additional court actions are filed and a judgment is entered, local governments would receive revenue from the following sources: (1) The county general fund would receive 27% of the $70 court fee that is assessed in a court of record. Cities and towns maintaining a law enforcement agency that prosecutes at least 50% of its ordinance violations in a court of record may receive 3% of court fees. If the case is filed in a city or town court, 20% of the court fee would be deposited in the county general fund and 25% would be deposited in the city or town general fund. (2) A $3 fee would be assessed and, if collected, would be deposited into the county law enforcement continuing education fund.

(3) A $2 jury fee is assessed and, if collected, would be deposited into the county user fee fund to supplement the compensation of jury members.
